

Turkish Land Restaurant is the First Turkish Restaurant established in the city of Amman. We opened in June of 2011 under the auspices of the Turkish Ambassador, attended the opening of the Turkish community and business leaders, Turkish land restaurant is an investment Jordanian Turkish joint. Our sole cuisine and claim to fame Authentic Turkish food as New Haven's first and only Turkish cuisine.

We have a kitchen designer on the way of Turkey, many of the delicious food prepared in the hands of Turkish chefs with extensive experience in cooking. We aim to make dining at Turkish Land as close to an authentic Turkish experience as possible. Our guides team in the kitchen, overseeing all preparation and meals to ensure the highest quality every time.

At Turkish Land Restaurant, service is a focus and we only employ the best floor staff who have proven their dedication to providing the best customer service. We value your feedback – good and bad. We'd love to hear if you've had a wonderful experience and we'd also like to know if there are any areas that can be improved.

We pride ourselves in serving you an authentic Turkish meal in a relaxed fine dining atmosphere. Serving you only the highest quality food, friendly hospitality and service, and a warm inviting atmosphere for your dining pleasures is important to us and something we take very seriously.

Relax by Lake Monroe while enjoying some of the best meals of Turkish cuisine and forget all your worries as if you were by the beautiful Mediterranean coast of Turkey. Or sit indoors and listen to the sounds of our culture softly playing in the background while aromas of a fresh, made to order cuisine is being prepared by our master chefs. We are serious and passionate about making your experience at our restaurant a pleasurable one. We believe our customers deserve the freshest ingredients available. We specialize in gourmet soups, all kinds of traditional Turkish kebabs, wonderful sandwiches, fresh & creative salads and homemade treats.

Please, be proud of inviting your guests and friends to impeccable meal at this elegant restaurant.>>>>>
